

good comments about the race," said Mr. Wright. "We're really pleased with the way businesses and local residents have gotten involved with the run."

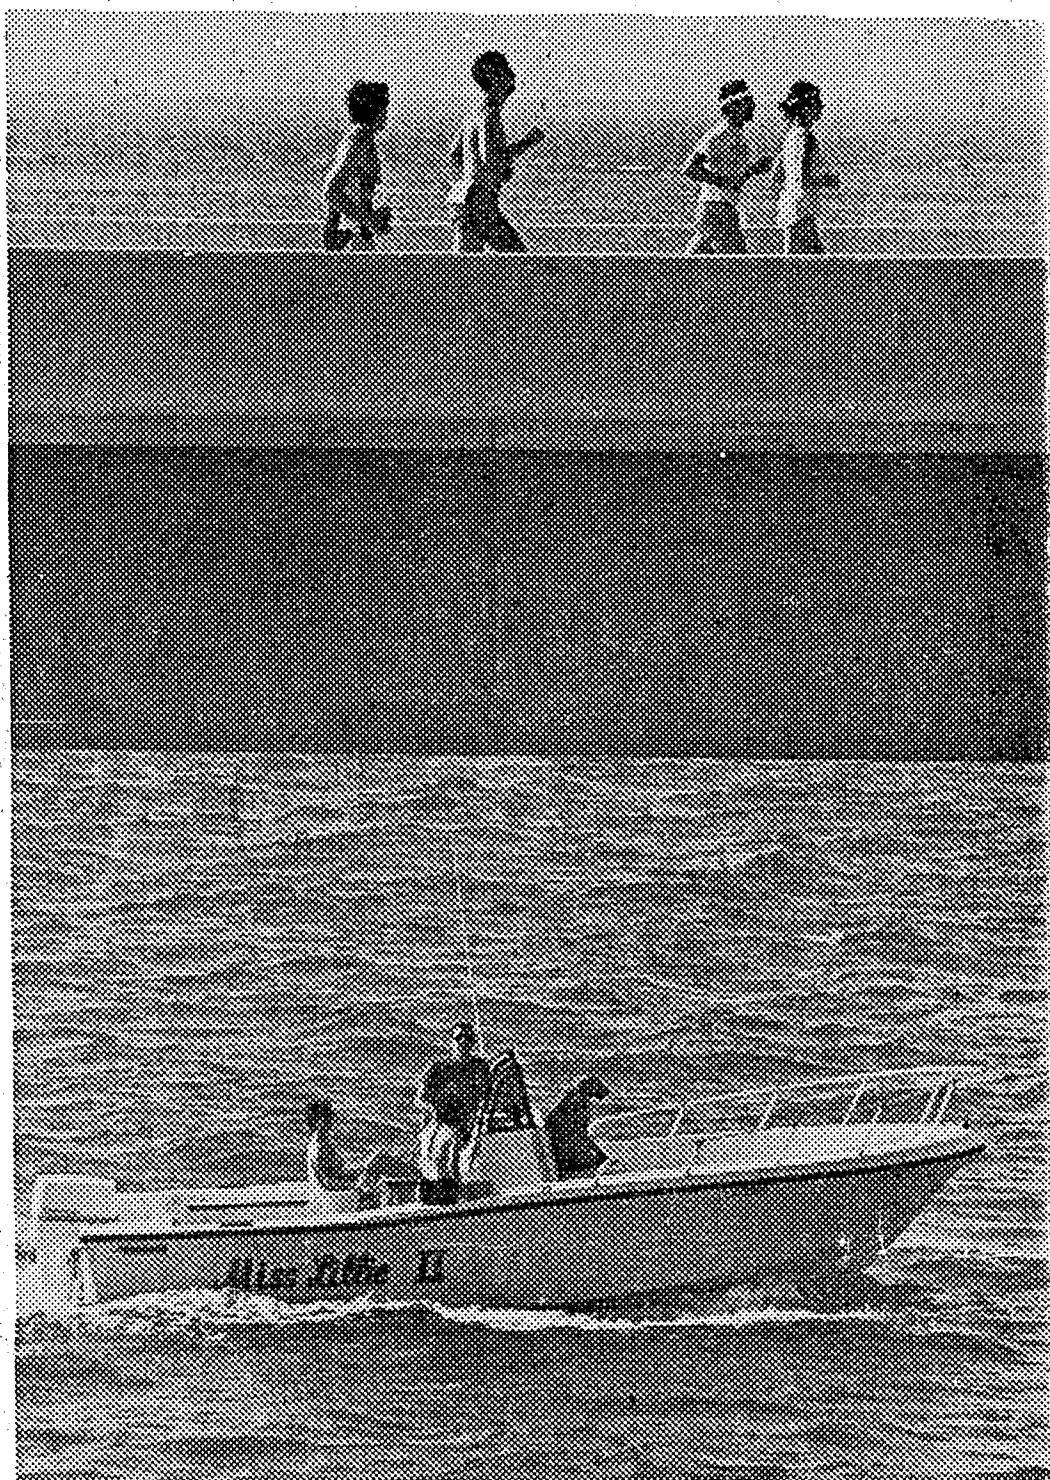

area at the K mart Plaza was "no where near full." Mr. Wright said the Marathon Runners Club would soon begin analyzing the staging of the event, finding ways to make things run even more smoothly in future runs.

drawing top-notch runners and heavy media coverage. "The run has really become an event of major importance to the Middle Keys, both from a business and publicity standpoint," Mr. Wright said. "It's almost like the race has taken on a life of its own."

Keynoter photo by KEVIN WADLOW

Mile Bridge Run. Most of a handful needed medi-

TRACKING THE progress of runners in the Seven Mile Bridge Run is no great problem — for those spectators who have access to a boat or a helicopter. Many boaters shouted words of encouragement to the runners.

Awards received ¹⁹⁸⁴ by bridge runners

MARATHON — Awards were handed to the best overall finishers and the winners of 16 age-group competitions in the Seven Mile Bridge Run. The overall winners were not included in the age group winners. The top finishers include:
MEN'S OVERALL: Harry Vaughn, West Palm Beach, 33:53.3; Rick Bourrier, Fort Lauderdale, 34:57.3; Ron Stefina, Boca Raton, 35:28.2.
WOMEN'S OVERALL: Sharon Beal, Fort Lauderdale, 44:26.0; Dabney Taylor, Miami, 44:39.4; Alex Long, Fort Lauderdale, 44:56.5.
MEN 14 AND UNDER: Kenneth Stucker, Key West, 50:06.4; Bob Fradley Pembroke Pines, 52:10.4; Keith Hill, Miami, 54:07.9.
WOMEN 14 AND UNDER: Brandy Reagle, Key West, 58:17.9; Tammy Rodriguez, Miami, 58:52.6; Marcia Harrison, North Lauderdale, 59:01.4.
MEN 15-19: Eric Oilbrice, Pompano Beach, 41:12.9; Ted Seidel, Coconut Creek, 42:40.2; Pieter Seidel, Coconut Creek, 42:54.5.
WOMEN 15-19: Laura Ernst, Deland, 53:20.9; Elfie Fassl, Big Pine, 55:55.1; Michelle Smith, 56:53.8.
MEN 20-29: Moses Maboney, Key Biscayne, 36:36.6; Tom Gassen, 36:50.8; Peter Marshall, Key West, 37:15.7.
WOMEN 20-29: Karen Ladd, Key West, 47:18.9; Beba Pantin, Coral Gables, 47:58.5;

Stephanie Eitzel-Conway, Fort Lauderdale, 50:39.5.
MEN 30-34: Barry Busch, Fort Lauderdale, 37:33.6; Gary Bidome, Fort Lauderdale, 39:59.4; Larry Dye, Fort Myers, 42:03.2.
WOMEN 30-34: Deborah Robertson, Sugarloaf, 46:04.9; Patricia Bonner, Key West, 47:14.9; Dana Kreamer, Hollywood, 50:25.3.
MEN 35-39: Joseph Zeman, Lake Worth, 41:39.9; Greg Parsons, Pompano Beach, 43:23.1; Tom Trump, Miami, 43:26.1.
WOMEN 35-39: Vicki Limbus, Fort Lauderdale, 47:09.2; Cathy Shevchuk, Fort Lauderdale, 53:16.2; Gerda Rodriguez, Southernmost Runners, 53:25.6.
MEN 40-49: Richard Van Scotten, Boca Raton, 38:52.9; William Springer, Fort Lauderdale, 40:14.1; Bill Wagner, 41:34.1.
WOMEN 40-49: Heather Murphy, Key West, 50:04.0; Eisle Hudson, Big Pine, 51:59.0; Jan Vogt, Key West, 52:51.9.
MEN 50-59: Joe Kozlin, Jupiter, 42:47.2; Jim Vogt, Key West, 47:18.6; Manuel Ortiz Islamorada, 47:59.8.
WOMEN 50-59: Judy Bagatti, Coconut Grove, 56:44.6; Margaret McCullough, Islamorada, 1:03:54.8; Marie Kaup, Miami, 1:07:42.4.
MEN 60 AND OVER: Mort Stull, Boca Raton, 51:28.7; Dan Biele, Fort Lauderdale, 54:14.6; Hy Pinsky, Miami, 56:33.4.
WOMEN 60 AND OVER: Marlon Epstein, Key Colony, 1:21:04.4.

Keynoter photo by KEVIN WADLOW

as the finish line of the becomes the only person overall crown. She also won age runs in her division.

1984

1984